

ROMAN STUDIES GROUP

SURREY ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

Shining a Light on the 5th century AD in Surrey and the South-East: How did Roman Britain become Saxon England?

Saturday 5th May 2018

Ashtead Peace Memorial Hall, Woodfield Lane, Ashtead, Surrey KT21 2BE

| stay car park and lunch opportunities adjacent t | The Upper Thames Valley in the 5th Century and the origins of Wessex A discussion of the material evidence for the transitional period [to be read by Lisa Backhouse] Exploring the post-Roman to early Anglo-Saxon transition in SE Britain: new perspectives from Quoit Brooch style metalwork Discussion and closing comments ne at www.surreyarchaeology.org.uk to venue. Morning and afternoon refreshments included. ooking Form |
|--|--|
| Medieval Archaeology, Univ. Oxford Tea Prof. John Hines, Professor of Archaeology, Cardiff University Dr Ellen Swift, Reader in Archaeology, University of Kent Chair Close Tickets £15 Book onling stay car park and lunch opportunities adjacent to | origins of Wessex A discussion of the material evidence for the transitional period [to be read by Lisa Backhouse] Exploring the post-Roman to early Anglo-Saxon transition in SE Britain: new perspectives from Quoit Brooch style metalwork Discussion and closing comments ne at www.surreyarchaeology.org.uk to venue. Morning and afternoon refreshments included. ooking Form |
| Medieval Archaeology, Univ. Oxford Tea Prof. John Hines, Professor of Archaeology, Cardiff University Dr Ellen Swift, Reader in Archaeology, University of Kent Chair Close Tickets £15 Book onling stay car park and lunch opportunities adjacent to Postal Book | origins of Wessex A discussion of the material evidence for the transitional period [to be read by Lisa Backhouse] Exploring the post-Roman to early Anglo-Saxon transition in SE Britain: new perspectives from Quoit Brooch style metalwork Discussion and closing comments ne at www.surreyarchaeology.org.uk to venue. Morning and afternoon refreshments included. |
| Medieval Archaeology, Univ. Oxford Tea Prof. John Hines, Professor of Archaeology, Cardiff University Dr Ellen Swift, Reader in Archaeology, University of Kent Chair Close Tickets £15 Book onling stay car park and lunch opportunities adjacent to | origins of Wessex A discussion of the material evidence for the transitional period [to be read by Lisa Backhouse] Exploring the post-Roman to early Anglo-Saxon transition in SE Britain: new perspectives from Quoit Brooch style metalwork Discussion and closing comments ne at www.surreyarchaeology.org.uk to venue. Morning and afternoon refreshments included. |
| Medieval Archaeology, Univ. Oxford Tea Prof. John Hines, Professor of Archaeology, Cardiff University Dr Ellen Swift, Reader in Archaeology, University of Kent Chair Close Tickets £15 Book onling stay car park and lunch opportunities adjacent to | origins of Wessex A discussion of the material evidence for the transitional period [to be read by Lisa Backhouse] Exploring the post-Roman to early Anglo-Saxon transition in SE Britain: new perspectives from Quoit Brooch style metalwork Discussion and closing comments ne at www.surreyarchaeology.org.uk to venue. Morning and afternoon refreshments included. |
| Medieval Archaeology, Univ. Oxford Tea Prof. John Hines, Professor of Archaeology, Cardiff University Dr Ellen Swift, Reader in Archaeology, University of Kent Chair Close Tickets £15 Book onling stay car park and lunch opportunities adjacent to | origins of Wessex A discussion of the material evidence for the transitional period [to be read by Lisa Backhouse] Exploring the post-Roman to early Anglo-Saxon transition in SE Britain: new perspectives from Quoit Brooch style metalwork Discussion and closing comments ne at www.surreyarchaeology.org.uk to venue. Morning and afternoon refreshments included. |
| Medieval Archaeology, Univ. Oxford Tea Prof. John Hines, Professor of Archaeology, Cardiff University Dr Ellen Swift, Reader in Archaeology, University of Kent Chair Close Tickets £15 Book online | origins of Wessex A discussion of the material evidence for the transitional period [to be read by Lisa Backhouse] Exploring the post-Roman to early Anglo-Saxon transition in SE Britain: new perspectives from Quoit Brooch style metalwork Discussion and closing comments ne at www.surreyarchaeology.org.uk |
| Medieval Archaeology, Univ. Oxford Tea Prof. John Hines, Professor of Archaeology, Cardiff University Dr Ellen Swift, Reader in Archaeology, University of Kent Chair Close | origins of Wessex A discussion of the material evidence for the transitional period [to be read by Lisa Backhouse] Exploring the post-Roman to early Anglo-Saxon transition in SE Britain: new perspectives from Quoit Brooch style metalwork Discussion and closing comments |
| Medieval Archaeology, Univ. Oxford Tea Prof. John Hines, Professor of Archaeology, Cardiff University Dr Ellen Swift, Reader in Archaeology, University of Kent Chair | origins of Wessex A discussion of the material evidence for the transitional period [to be read by Lisa Backhouse] Exploring the post-Roman to early Anglo-Saxon transition in SE Britain: new perspectives from Quoit Brooch style metalwork |
| Medieval Archaeology, Univ. Oxford Tea Prof. John Hines, Professor of Archaeology, Cardiff University Dr Ellen Swift, Reader in Archaeology, University of Kent | origins of Wessex A discussion of the material evidence for the transitional period [to be read by Lisa Backhouse] Exploring the post-Roman to early Anglo-Saxon transition in SE Britain: new perspectives from Quoit Brooch style metalwork |
| Medieval Archaeology, Univ. Oxford Tea Prof. John Hines, Professor of Archaeology, | origins of Wessex A discussion of the material evidence for the |
| Medieval Archaeology, Univ. Oxford | |
| · | |
| | The University of the Continue of the |
| Dr Kate Mees, Postdoctoral Fellow, Dept. of Archaeology, University of Durham | Inheritance and transformation: engaging with the past in the early medieval funerary landscape of south-east England |
| Lunch | |
| Dr Sam Lucy, Fellow of Newnham College, University of Cambridge | Thinking about transitions: perspectives from Eastern England |
| Dr James Gerrard, Senior Lecturer in Roman Archaeology, Newcastle University | Pottery, power and small worlds at the end of Roman Britain |
| Coffee and tea | |
| Dr Peter Guest, Senior Lecturer in Roman Archaeology, Cardiff University | Late Roman coinage in south-eastern England and beyond |
| Chair | Welcome and introductory remarks |
| Registration | |
| | Chair Dr Peter Guest, Senior Lecturer in Roman Archaeology, Cardiff University Coffee and tea Dr James Gerrard, Senior Lecturer in Roman Archaeology, Newcastle University Dr Sam Lucy, Fellow of Newnham College, University of Cambridge Lunch Dr Kate Mees, Postdoctoral Fellow, Dept. of |

Please post a cheque with your booking form, made payable to 'Surrey Archaeological Society', to Surrey Archaeological Society, Castle Arch, Guildford, Surrey GU1 3SX

No paper ticket will be issued but an e-mail acknowledgement will be sent if details available