

Shining a Light on the 5th century AD in Surrey and the South-East: How did Roman Britain become Saxon England?

Saturday 5th May 2018

Ashtead Peace Memorial Hall, Woodfield Lane, Ashtead, Surrey KT21 2BE

You are booked to attend this conference on 5th May and we look forward to seeing you there.

Registration opens at 9.30am.

Travel

By train: Ashtead Station is a 10-15 minute walk from the hall. It is served by trains from London Waterloo, London Victoria, London Bridge and Guildford.

By bus: buses 21, 408, 416, 479 and 623 pass through Ashtead on the A24. For further information go to:

<https://www.surreycc.gov.uk/roads-and-transport/buses-and-other-transport/bus-timetables/maps-of-bus-routes-and-stops>

By car: the hall is just off the A24 in the centre of Ashtead Village.

From M25 - leave at Junction 9 (Leatherhead) and follow the signs to A24 direction Epsom/Ashtead. As you enter Ashtead Village Woodfield Lane is on the left hand side and parking is signposted. If you miss the turning keep going and there is a rear entrance to the car park signposted further along.

From London - Ashtead is on the A24, between Epsom and Leatherhead. Alternatively one can take the A3 south to the M25 at Junction 10, head east for one junction and follow directions from M25.

Parking: there is a large car park adjacent to the hall with 3 disabled parking spaces immediately outside. Pay and Display parking costs 60p/hr and can be paid with coins or using a RingGo app.

Refreshments: tea, coffee and biscuits are available at the morning and afternoon break.

Lunch: the Marshall Room and the main hall will be available for those with packed lunches. Ashtead has several cafes, pubs, delicatessens, a fish and chip shop, and a M&S Food so you needn't go hungry.
