Finding Farnham is back and Surrey Archaeological Society is running not one, but two community archaeology test pitting events in the area in 2019!

Participants of all ages are invited to book a slot for a full week-end of community test-pitting (including digging, sieving and finds processing) at Holt Pound on Saturday 6th to Sunday 7th July to investigate a Roman-period site. All sessions are free but must be booked in advance – for info and to book, please contact outreach@surreyarchaeology.org.uk.

Free for all

On Saturday 3rd August, the annual Finding Farnham Festival will be back at the Museum of Farnham (11:00-16:00), where anyone can come along and have a try at digging, or simply watch the archaeologists investigate a pre-Georgian outbuilding! The day will include a visit from Roman legionaries and chance to look at the summer's archaeology exhibit featuring some of the choicest artefacts from the region!
