Medieval Studies Forum Churches Study Day Saturday 9th June 2018

Programme

- 10.00 am Meet at St Mary's, Guildford where Mary Alexander will provide an introduction and brief tour
- 11.30 am Tour of St Nicholas, Compton (led by Rob Briggs)
- 12.15 pm Lunch - Individuals are to arrange their own lunch, and due to time constraints, a packed lunch is preferred. There is a pub (The Withies Inn), a Thai restaurant (formerly The Harrow) and the Watts Gallery tea rooms.
- 1.30 pm Tour of Old St Peter's and St Paul's, Albury (which incorporates Saxon material) (led by Anne Sassin)
- 2.30 pm Tour of St James', Shere (led by Anne Sassin)
- 3.30 pm Tour of St James', Wotton (led by Rob Briggs)
- 4.15 pm End of study day (approximate)

As numbers for this series of visits/study day will be limited, please book a place with Brian Creese in advance. Individuals should make their own arrangements for travel. Parking at some sites may be very limited, and we encourage participants to share lifts if possible. Please note that St Mary's will be easily accessible by public transport, with car parking very near (Millbrook, Tunsgate, Castle Car Park, etc), and those arranging lifts may wish to do so from Guildford.

There is no cost for this study day, and we leave it up to individuals to make donations to the various churches visited, as they wish.

Please note that tickets will not be issued. Instead you will be entered on the 'Ticket list' and will receive a confirmation e-mail plus joining instructions and directions to the sites. If you do not have e-mail please include with your application a self-addressed stamped envelope so that we can confirm your place and send the joining instructions.
